

Opus Opera invites you to discover the power, passion, and beauty of the unadulterated human voice, up close and personal.

Our intimate performances in non-traditional venues will immerse your senses in art of every kind. Through public performance, educational outreach, and collaborative partnerships with arts groups in New Orleans and beyond, it is the mission of Opus Opera to bring opera closer to the community, and to each member of our audience.

Please join Opu Opera in our 2018-2019 season!
Reserve tickets or donate online at opusopera.org; send inquiries about special donations, education programs, and underwriting opportunities to info@opusopera.org or call 504-451-0560.

The background of the right page is a large, textured painting of various flowers in shades of white, pink, and yellow, set against a dark, moody background. The brushstrokes are thick and expressive.
